

My Girl

I've got sunshine on a cloudy day
When it's cold outside
I've got the month of May
I guess you'd say
What can make me feel this way
My girl, my girl, my girl
Talkin' 'bout my girl

Tribute

Our beloved Naynay was born Renee Hoffman in Norwalk, Connecticut. She grew up learning about Jesus at an early age when her aunt "dragged her to church." Renee would later realize that she had become that "church lady" she used to associate with her aunt. She married and then had two sons, Kenneth and Andrew, living in Connecticut for a time, then relocating to Tucson. She and her boys are faithful Steelers fans, enjoying games and fun times together. In fact, you could say that fun was Renee's middle name. She always had warm hugs, bright smiles, and irreverent jokes at the ready, and extended herself generously to help any and all people near and far. Whether hiking Tucson trails or the Grand Canyon with friends, serving tirelessly at Grace Community Church, creating colorful mosaics, or finding and delivering the perfect gift, God's gift of generosity in Renee always served to encourage others. She joins her dear father David Roye, mother Lula Mae Smith, brother Clarence Boyd, and sister Brenda Boyd in Heaven. The lights of her life, Kenneth and Andrew, are a precious legacy...to whom she says, and reminds us all, "you're gonna be OK."

Renee touched so many of us with her sweet, spirited soul. She lived fully and fearlessly, and has forever claimed the color we now know as "Renee green." Her friendship was true, and we know that her place by the King is secure.

Our loss on earth is Heaven's gain.

Romans 15:13

May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace as you trust in him, so that you may overflow with hope by the power of the Holy Spirit.

“Mama was my greatest teacher, a teacher of compassion, love, and fearlessness. If love is sweet as a flower, then my mother is that sweet flower of love.”

~Stevie Wonder

"Dreams, if they're any good, are always a little bit crazy."

~ Ray Charles

Our Father who art in heaven, Hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth, as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For Thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever and ever.

Amen.

2 Corinthians 1:3-4

Praise be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of compassion and the God of all comfort, who comforts us in all our troubles, so that we can comfort those in any trouble with the comfort we ourselves receive from God.

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now I'm found
Was blind, but now I see
'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed
Chorus - My chains are gone, I've been set free
My God, my Savior has ransomed me
And like a flood His mercy reigns
Unending love
Amazing grace
The Lord has promised good to me
His word my hope secures
He will my shield and portion be
As long as life endures
Chorus - My chains are gone, I've been set free
My God, my Savior has ransomed me
And like a flood His mercy reigns
Unending love
Amazing grace
Through many dangers, toils, and snares
I have already come
'Twas grace that brought me safe thus far
And grace will lead me home

John 11:17-27

17 On his arrival, Jesus found that Lazarus had already been in the tomb for four days. 18 Now Bethany was less than two miles[a] from Jerusalem, 19 and many Jews had come to Martha and Mary to comfort them in the loss of their brother. 20 When Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went out to meet him, but Mary stayed at home.

21 “Lord,” Martha said to Jesus, “if you had been here, my brother would not have died. 22 But I know that even now God will give you whatever you ask.”

23 Jesus said to her, “Your brother will rise again.”

24 Martha answered, “I know he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day.”

25 Jesus said to her, “I am the resurrection and the life. The one who believes in me will live, even though they die; 26 and whoever lives by believing in me will never die. Do you believe this?”

27 “Yes, Lord,” she replied, “I believe that you are the Messiah, the Son of God, who is to come into the world.”

I'll Fly Away

Some glad morning when this life is o'er,
I'll fly away;
To a home on God's celestial shore,
I'll fly away

[Chorus]
I'll fly away, Oh Glory
I'll fly away; (in the morning)
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by,
I'll fly away

When the shadows of this life have gone,
I'll fly away;
Like a bird from prison bars has flown,
I'll fly away

[Chorus]
I'll fly away, Oh Glory
I'll fly away; (in the morning)
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by,
I'll fly away

Just a few more weary days and then,
I'll fly away;
To a land where joy shall never end,
I'll fly away

[Chorus]
I'll fly away, Oh Glory
I'll fly away; (in the morning)
When I die, Hallelujah, by and by,
I'll fly away

When I die, Hallelujah, by and by,
I'll fly away
